

County Court

Smith County, Texas

Local Rules

(adopted _____ 20__)

Presiding Judge
Honorable Joel P. Baker

Preface

The primary goal of the County Court of Smith County, Texas is to accomplish the business of the parties and counsel who have matters in our Court as quickly, pleasantly and economically as possible, within the limits imposed by Texas law.

These rules set forth some policies and guidelines that I believe will assist in accomplishing those goals. The following rules are as complete as possible, but they are not totally comprehensive nor are they completely inflexible, and may be amended from time to time. It is my intent that all of us, the judge, each staff member of the court, and counsel should strive to achieve the objective of these rules.

COUNTY COURT SMITH COUNTY, TEXAS

JOEL P. BAKER, JUDGE

Chapter 1: General Rules

Rule 1.1 Title, Scope, Authority, and Application of Local Rules

(a) These rules are the Amended Local Rules of the County Court of Smith County, Texas. They shall govern proceedings in the County Court of Smith County, Texas for the purpose of securing uniformity and fairness in those proceedings and in order to promote justice.

(b) These rules supercede in their entirety, and substitute for, the Local rules of the County Court of Smith County, Texas originally approved September 23, 1999, said prior rules are vacated and rescinded upon final adoption hereof.

(c) Matters not specifically addressed shall comply with the requirements of the Texas Probate Code.

Rule 1.2 Jurisdiction (§§ 4 and 605 of the Texas Probate Code)

The County Court of Smith County, Texas hears:

- (a) All applications, petitions, and motions regarding probate or guardianship matters;
- (b) All matters incident or appertaining to such guardianship or estate matters; and
- (c) All matters regarding mental health and mental retardation commitments.

Rule 1.3 Parties and Parties Proceeding Pro Se

(a) "Counsel" as used in these Rules includes attorneys and parties representing themselves pro se.

(b) Any natural person proceeding on their own behalf without an attorney shall be expected to read and follow these Local Rules and the Rules of Civil Procedure, the Rules of Evidence, the Texas Probate Code, and the Rules of Appellate Procedure as may be appropriate in the particular case. Failure to comply may be sanctioned, fined or punished as in other cases. pro se parties shall be responsible for providing the clerk with current addresses and phone numbers. The address so provided shall be used as the address for serving all pleadings and any other notices on the pro se party.

Rule 1.4 Assignment of Cases

(a) All matters filed in the County Court of Smith County, Texas shall be assigned a number. Once a case number has been assigned and docketed, all matters relating thereto, shall remain in that court using the same number.

Rule 1.5 Transfer

Pursuant to Sections 5 c and 606 c of the Texas Probate Code “In those counties in which there is no statutory probate court, but in which there is a county court at law or other statutory court exercising the jurisdiction of a probate court, all applications, petitions, and motions regarding probate and administrations shall be heard in those courts and the constitutional county court, rather than in the district courts, unless otherwise provided by law. The judge of a county court may hear any of those matters regarding probate or administrations sitting for the judge of any other county court. In contested matters, the judge of the constitutional county court may on the judge’s own motion, and shall on the motion of a party to the proceeding, transfer the proceeding to the county court at law or a statutory court exercising the jurisdiction of a probate court other than a statutory probate court. The court to which the proceeding is transferred may hear the proceeding as if originally filed in the court.”

Rule 1.6 Vacations of Counsel

Counsel shall not request a trial date for any period which counsel has previously been informed by other counsel is a scheduled vacation. If a case is set for trial by the court on a date for which a counsel has planned a vacation, counsel will notify the court as soon as the notice of trial setting is received and the case will be reset for a different time, unless there is a clear showing of abuse or unreasonable delay. If plans for a vacation are made by a counsel after a trial setting notice has been received, counsel will immediately notify the court and other parties with a request that the case be reset for a different time. The court will rule on such request after giving all parties to the lawsuit an opportunity to respond to the request. The court will not recognize “generic vacation letters” when setting cases for trial.

Rule 1.7 Judicial Absences

(a) Whenever a judge anticipates an absence day due to vacation, illness, national service, attendance at legal education courses, attendance at the meetings of judicial, bar committees, or otherwise, then that judge may, at his or her discretion, request that the presiding judge assign a visiting judge to his or her court; or

(b) The Judge may appoint a retired judge as a special judge when he or she is absent from the county. (§26.023 Texas Government Code)

Rule 1.8 Appointment of Attorney or Guardian Ad Litem

(a) An Attorney or guardian ad litem shall be appointed pursuant to the Texas Probate Code or the Rules of Civil Procedure;

(1) Ad litem appointments are handled by the court from a list of certified attorneys as required by §§ 645 and 646 of the Texas Probate Code.

(b) Until an order is signed discharging an ad litem, the ad litem shall be notified of all hearings and/or conferences with the court, and shall be served with all pleadings.

(c) The ad litem shall make a report as directed by the court of the result of the ad litem's investigation concerning the purpose of the ad litem's appointment.

Rule 1.9 Miscellaneous Requirements

(a) Personal Representative/Applicant General Information sheets are required to be filed by all personal representatives/applicants. (These forms are available in the County Clerk's office or online at www.smith-county.com)

(b) Court Instruction sheets are required to be filed by all personal representatives. (These forms are available in the County Clerk's office or online at www.smith-county.com)
